

FBLA Fun Facts

FBLA has 215,000 high school members, 20,000 middle level members, 11,000 Phi Beta Lambda (collegiate) members, 3,000 Professional Division members, and 11,000 advisers

Through a 40 year partnership, FBLA has raised over $15 million for the March of Dimes

The idea for FBLA was created in 1937, but the first chapter wasn't chartered until 5 years later

FBLA members are 40% more likely to start their own business after high school than non-members

There are 6,462 chapters, in 47 states and Brazil, Cayman Islands, China, Europe, Haiti, Korea, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands

FBLA is the largest business organization in the world